

Jill lives in Hebden Bridge with her daughter, Liberty Rose, eight in Year 3.

Moving schools is a big decision; Jill couldn't be happier with kind, caring environment she has found for her daughter at Luddendenfoot Academy

A strong emphasis on pastoral care

Liberty Rose moved to Luddendenfoot Academy as a mid year transfer in Year 3 after some difficulties at her previous school. "As a parent I spent many months trying to improve the situation for Liberty Rose, but the best thing for us as a family was to move schools. I wanted to find one that had a very strong emphasis on pastoral care, was caring, worked very closely with families and one that had an understanding of working with children with additional needs. I wanted an environment that would bring out the best in her. She's is flourishing at Luddendenfoot."

Nurturing and caring

Jill, understandably, wanted to be sure that she was making the right decision in changing schools Liberty Rose. After reading the Ofsted report she visited Luddendenfoot Academy to meet the Headteacher and was immediately impressed. "I found the her to be incredibly clued up on additional needs; she is nurturing and caring and the school came across as somewhere not solely focused on ticking boxes and exam results but as a school who takes a holistic approach to caring for each child."
