

Harvey and Lucas are both thriving in the supportive environment of Hawkesley Church Primary Academy

Ann and Stuart live in Birmingham with their children, Harvey, aged ten, and Lucas, aged six.

Enjoying school

Ann and Stuart are delighted with the progress their sons are making in the happy atmosphere of Hawkesley Church Primary Academy. Ann says: "Harvey is now in Year 5 and loves learning. He enjoys going to school each day and doing activities with his friends. Lucas is making good progress in Year 1, thanks to the marvellous support he is receiving from the staff."

Friendly atmosphere

Stuart and other members of his family had attended Hawkesley Church Primary and so the couple knew it would be a good school for Harvey. "It is close to where we live and it is a small environment where everyone knows everyone," Ann says. "Harvey went to the nursery at the school and enjoyed the play-based learning and making new friends."

Attentive teachers

After Harvey went into Reception, he loved going to school and missed it during Covid when he had to stay at home, Ann says. "Harvey missed half of Reception as well as part of Year 1 because of the pandemic, but the school worked well with the children and did not let them fall behind with their learning."
