

Margaret, Mary and Anne are blossoming in the friendly environment of St John XXIII Catholic Primary School

Laura and Brendan live in Shepherd's Bush with their daughters, Margaret, aged six, Mary, aged five, and Anne, aged three.

Caring atmosphere

Laura and Brendan love the way the children are taught to look out for each other and are encouraged to be kind by the staff at St John XXIII Catholic Primary School. "When someone falls over in the playground, the other children will go and help them to get up again and comfort and look after them. There is a picture of Pope John XXIII on a wall inside the school and his goodness and passion for social justice seems to filter down into the daily life of the school," Laura says.

Building confidence

"Margaret started in Reception. She settled in very quickly even though she was quite shy at the time. I mentioned to the staff that she was quiet and shy and they promised to keep an eye on her. But by the time she had gone up into Year One she had really grown in confidence.

Mary says: "I enjoy learning music."

Anne says: "I like music and singing."
