

Returning to Holy Trinity C of E Primary School was the best thing in the world for Mick's adopted children

Mick and Karen Ashton live in Darwen with their five children, Joe 12, Greg, seven, twins Max and Leo, five and Olga, four.

Perfect choice

When Mick and his wife Karen adopted five children they were determined to send them to a school that provided a happy and secure environment. Holy Trinity C of E Primary School was the perfect choice.

A good balance

"I'd recommend the school to anyone," says Mick. "The school's academic achievements are very good, but most importantly, the children are all happy and to me that means absolutely everything. The teachers seem to do a fantastic job in achieving a good balance between the children getting their work done, and allowing them to have fun."

Children say:

"There isn't anything I don't like about Holy Trinity," says Joe. "The teachers are fair with everyone, they listen to any concerns you have and solve any problems in a cool, calm manner. I love it!"
