

No child is ever left behind at Holy Trinity and Nahid and his sons could not be happier

Nahid and Nasara Majid live in Darwen with their children Sara 17, Heera 16, Bushra 13, Ali 9 and Mohammed 5 years old.

Meeting individual needs

Holy Trinity School plays an important role in the lives of the Majid family. Dad, Nahid attended as a child, and so have all five of his children. The school's motto is: "No child is left behind" - something Nahid agrees with.

He says: "All children are valued and the school ensures their individual needs are met so nobody is ever left behind, which is very important."

Equal opportunities

Ali has Down's syndrome and Nahid is very happy with the school's inclusive approach to ensure he is happy and reaches his full potential.

"Ali absolutely loves school," explains Nahid. "He has speech and language difficulties and is unable to communicate verbally, Ali's one to one support teacher has enabled his class pupils and others to sign Makaton which has enabled other pupils to interact with Ali and welcome him with open arms".

Confidence building

The staff aim to make every child's school experience a rich and rewarding one where they develop confidence and pride in success.

"Mohammed was quite shy when he first started but now he is much more outgoing," says Nahid. "The teachers and classroom assistants really built up his confidence and he is very settled."
