

“ If I had had to home-school Olivia and Ruben they would have missed out on such a lot – friendships, life skills, many experiences and opportunities – and Andrew and I would have missed out on a great deal of support, too. I feel very privileged that my special children are in such a special environment. ”

Nicola and Andrew Carey have three children, Olivia, Henry and Ruben, who are , seven and five years old respectively. The family lives in Bexhill.

“ Last Christmas he took part in the school's carol concert, standing up in front of an audience to sing a solo. It was completely out of character and took a great deal of courage; I was so proud of him. ”

Linda Helsdown and her partner Graham live in Hastings with their son, Nathan, who is 10 years old and a pupil at Torfield School.

“ What Torfield has also done is to make him happier and more confident, with a real chance of a measure of independence in the future... Each week, I see him improving step by step and it is hard to express how much that means. ”

Billie-Jo Hancock and her partner Daniel live in Hastings with their sons Roman, five and Sole, four.
